
Caring – Focusing on Those That Matter the Most: The Character of the Christian Parent

*New Hope Community Church
Dr. Jack Bracy, May 28, 2017*

“But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.” 2 Timothy 3:14–15, ESV

In Christian Parenting Our Goals Are:

1. That Our Children Grow in Love for God and For Others as They Grow in Submission to The Lordship of Christ

Our Children Belong to God

“Acknowledge that the Lord is God! He made us, and we are his. We are his people, the sheep of his pasture.” Psalm 100:3, NLT

“But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children.” Matthew 19:14, NLT

This Requires

Continual Conversations

Modeling Godliness

Christian Parents Focus On:

Leading Our Children to Jesus

Instilling Biblical Principles

Building Godly Character

NO SUCH THING AS A PERFECT PARENT
Our Goal Is to Be Good Enough

2. That They Know and Experience Love and Grow in An Atmosphere of a Safe Haven

“Fathers, don't exasperate your children by coming down hard on them. Take them by the hand and lead them in the way of the Master.” Ephesians 6:4,

Things Your Children Need to Know

Respect for Authority

There Is a Right and Wrong Way of Living

There Is a Consequence for Sinful
Disobedience

3. Our Overall Method: As God Relates to Us, So We Must Relate to Our Children

“For it is by God’s grace that you have been saved through faith. It is not the result of your own efforts, but God’s gift, so that no one can boast about it.”
Ephesians 2:8, GNB

Grace and Love Should Be the Defining Characteristics of Our Home

What Would This Look Like?

I Must Be Growing and Maturing at The Same Time
as My Children

4. To Disciple Our Children to Be
Followers of Christ
